

Privacy Policy

United Community Action Network (UCAN) is committed to protecting the privacy of its website users.

What information do we collect?

The only personal information we collect from website visitors is that voluntarily entered into our forms that users submit to apply for grants, ask questions, share stories about their organizations, etc. This information is for the exclusive use of United Community Action Network and we only share it with employees, agents and contractors who agree to abide by our privacy policy.

We can also access some non-identifying basic information from server logs. This includes total number of visitors, pages viewed, type of browser you are using (e.g., Netscape, Internet Explorer), type of operating system you are using (e.g., Mac OS or Windows), and domain name of your Internet service provider.

How do we use your information?

Any information is for the exclusive use of UCAN, and we do not share it with anyone outside our agency. UCAN may use non-identifying basic information (aggregate data) to analyze site usage and to improve the content and design of the site. UCAN requires employees, agents and contractors who have access to information about applicants and potential applicants to protect information consistent with this Privacy Policy.

Cookies

UCAN does not use cookies on its website, except to enable repeat blog participants to post additional comments without having to re-enter their name and email address.

No liability

While UCAN takes appropriate measures to ensure information is protected, nevertheless, such security measures may not prevent all loss, misuse or alteration of information on the site. UCAN is not responsible for any damages or liabilities relating to such security failures. You understand that unauthorized third parties may access data and communications, including email, when communicated via the Internet. UCAN's website includes links to other websites. UCAN cannot ensure the privacy practices of other such sites.
